Key Changes

HOME LEARNING

Home Reading

We adopt a library system which is completely run by the children.

Your child will have chosen a book from our UKS2 library or their classroom library. Each time they change their book, they will receive a new book sticker.

Children will be encouraged to change their book regularly which will mean reading regularly at home.

Children may read independently at home but it is still important to share stories or engage in book talk with your child. This may be asking them to summarise what has happened or taking turns reading sections of the story aloud.

Home Learning

Your child's learning in school and any home learning pages or tasks can be found on SeeSaw.

Children should practise spellings weekly on Spelling Shed. A list will also be provided in their Homework Diary. Spelling tests take place on a Friday.

Children will have a weekly target to reach on Reading Plus. They will have time to access this in school but may also need to complete some assignments at home.

Home Learning

Your child can also practise their maths skills and revisit maths lessons on Maths Shed.

Children can access Epic in school hours and this will be used as an additional reading resource.

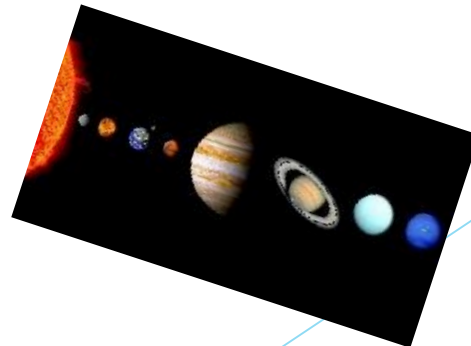

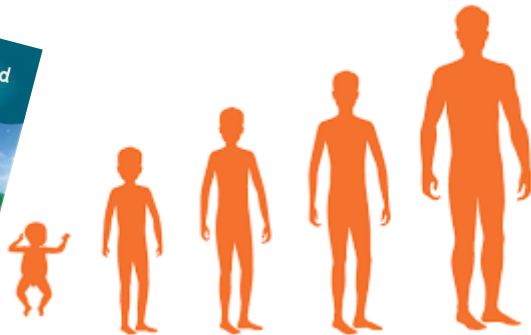

Your child will receive their home learning books. They will go home on a Friday and should be returned on a Wednesday.

Home Learning Club- Tuesdays 15:15-16:00.

SATs

We will hold a SATs meeting closer to the time to discuss this.

We do not start preparing for SATs until the second half of the Spring term and feel it is important that children receive a broad and balanced curriculum that doesn't simply focus on this.

We are a Rights Respecting School.

Our ethos and curriculum is underpinned by the UNCRC.

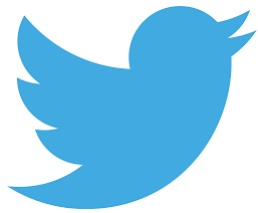

Children are encouraged to talk to their families and the wider community about their rights and responsibilities.

LOOK!

out on Twitter pages and Facebook page to find out more about the rights your child is focusing on each week!

THANK YOU FOR COMING.

You will find individual class Twitter pages via the main school twitter page.
